DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-16, drawn to a method of identifying an exon in a eukaryotic genomic fragment.
- II. Claims 17-20, drawn to a phage display library.
- III. Claims 21-24, drawn to a phage expression vector.
- IV. Claims 25-28, drawn to a method of identifying an exon in a genomic fragment.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and I are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are drawn to different methods of identifying different exons e.g., from eukaryotic as in Group I and from non-eukaryotic as in Group IV.

Inventions II and II are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are drawn to different composition i.e., a vector and a phage display library. The phage display library can contain other vectors such as pHen-1.

Inventions (I and IV) and (II and III) are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are drawn to different and distinct methods and compositions. Each of the different methods can employ different vectors than those claim or different phage libraries comprising non-eukaryotic genomic fragment.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, and the search required for Group I is not required for Groups II-IV, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Claims 2, 6, 7, 16 and 23 are generic to a plurality of disclosed patentably distinct species comprising:

A). Binding partner such as antibody or enzyme or receptor (claim 2).

Art Unit: 1639

B). Phage display generated using mRNA isolated from stimulated B cell or naïve B cell (claim 6).

C). Protein epitope encode by the genomic sequence or a nucleic acid encoding the protein epitope (Claim 7).

D). Selection tag (claims 23 and 24).

Each of the species recited in each of the subgroups e.g., A differs in structure, mode of binding and/or effects. Thus, a prior art reference anticipating one species would not render obvious the other species.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species from each of the subgroups, even though this requirement is traversed.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
